Diversity-Justice Courses: Students must complete two designated Diversity-Justice courses anywhere in their curriculum.

*Modern languages include Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, or Spanish. (Alternatively, students may complete one course in Greek or Latin at the 104- or 300 level.) Students who place higher than the 104 level on Loyola’s foreign language placement exam may be exempt from the foreign language core requirement, pending confirmation from Loyola’s Modern Language department after a proctored on-site placement exam. Those students will need to complete 1 additional free elective in lieu of the foreign language core.

The Diversity-Justice course requirements may simultaneously fulfill a Core, Major, Minor or Elective requirement. The Diversity-Justice courses may be taught in any discipline and will focus on domestic diversity, global diversity, or justice awareness. The Diversity-Justice courses must be taken at Loyola.
