CENTER FOR RESEARCH AND EVALUATION (CRE)

3RD ANNUAL

Justice for Flourishing:

Exploring Interdisciplinary Perspectives in the Pursuit of Truth and Transformation

Friday, February 5, 2027
9:00A.M.- 5:00 P.M.
(Registration Open at 8:30 A.M.)
4th Floor Programming Room

Dr. Matthew Lee

Director of the Harvard Flourishing Network

Dr. Lee's pioneering work integrates the humanities and rigorous social science to explore the profound connection between love, well-being, and ecosystem-wide flourishing.

Mr. Leon Smith

2026 National Teacher of the Year

A veteran educator at Haverford High School, he empowers students through critical inquiry, civic engagement, and genuine connection. He pioneered the school's AP African American Studies course, mentors future teachers, and leads students in legislative advocacy at the state capitol.

For more information, visit Center for Research and Evaluation | Loyola University Maryland