Supervisor:

This evaluation covers the period of March 1st of the previous year to February 29th of the current year.

Loyola University Maryland's Performance Evaluation Form is designed to link employee performance to Loyola's mission and values as reflected in the Jesuit tradition and to provide guidance and consistency to the evaluation process. It assists the supervisor in making decisions about employee development, merit increases, promotions and continuing employment. It should be used to summarize and evaluate the employee's overall performance for the past year, to establish results to be achieved for specific tasks or projects for the next year, and to identify professional development goals to enable the employee to enhance performance in the current position or to prepare them for future growth.

Procedures

1. The employee completes a self-evaluation (unless that requirement is waived by the supervisor).
2. The supervisor prepares a written evaluation for the employee.
3. The second level supervisor approves the evaluation.
4. Human Resources reviews evaluations and completes the calibration process.
5. The supervisor discusses the evaluation with the employee and adds final comments.
6. The employee adds comments and signs-off. The supervisor signs-off.

Questions regarding Loyola's performance management process can be addressed to Human Resources at performancereview@loyola.edu or by calling 410-617-2354.

	Self
Communication Communicates effectively and appropriately. Uses good judgment as to what to communicate to whom as well as the best way to get that accomplished. Speaks in a clear and credible manner, selecting the right tone for the situation and audience. Listens to others and allows them to make their point. This is quite different than those who tend to select the wrong means of communicating, or who communicate information to inappropriate people. It also contrasts with those whose messages are not clear or lack credibility, as well as those who demonstrate poor listening skills and are unreceptive to feedback.	<input type="radio"/>
	Self
Initiative Recognizes opportunities and initiates actions to capitalize on them. Looks for new and productive ways to make an impact. Demonstrates this characteristic when it comes to generating new ideas or processes, capitalizing on new business opportunities, seeking out and taking on increasing responsibility or resolving problems as they occur. Uses sound judgment about when to take action and when to seek guidance or permission. This is in contrast to those who fail to notice opportunities, wait to be asked or instructed before taking action, seldom offer new ideas or express reservations about taking on additional responsibilities.	<input type="radio"/>
	Self
Analytical Thinking Breaks down problems and issues into sub-components and then assesses the costs, benefits and risks of various options prior to selecting a particular approach. This contrasts with the behavior of individuals who tend to attack problems without a thorough examination of all important components and ramifications; who fail to weigh the costs, benefits and risks associated with various alternatives; and/or who are unable to explain or justify their decisions in a logical and systematic fashion.	<input type="radio"/>
