

LGBTQ+ SEXUAL MISCONDUCT
SERVICES & SUPPORT
ON AND OFF CAMPUS

ON-CAMPUS

WOMEN'S CENTER

4504A Seton Court

(410) 617-5844

<https://www.loyola.edu/department/womens-center>

Loyola's Women's Center is dedicated to empowering women and men. Melissa Lees (she/her) is the Sexual Violence Prevention, Education and Response Coordinator and is confidential. She is Safe Zone trained and helps in supporting LGBTQ+ individuals who have experienced sexual violence.

COUNSELING CENTER

Humanities, Room 105 (one flight up the turret entrance)

(410) 617-CARE (2273)

<https://www.loyola.edu/department/counseling-center>

Loyola's Counseling Center has experienced professionals that promote an awareness and sensitivity toward differences in race, gender, identity, and expression. It provides a safe, supportive, and confidential space where LGBTQ+ individuals who have experienced sexual violence can seek support and care. Clinician Sunny Swift (he/him/they/them) is the coordinator for LGBTQ+ Services within the department.

OFFICE OF TITLE IX, COMPLIANCE, AND ASSESSMENT

Jenkins Hall, Room 105

(410) 617-5646

<https://www.loyola.edu/department/title-ix>

Title IX supports LGBTQ+ individuals who have experienced sexual violence. Title IX intake officers for students are readily available to meet with complainants and other reporting parties to review their rights, resources, and reporting options that are available both on and off-campus, including offering and implementing supportive measures, regardless of whether they desire to file a complaint. Support resources who are Safe Zone trained are signified on the reporting resources website. If you would like to work with an intake officer who is part of the Queer community, Stepf Diaz (they/them), is available to support you through the entire Title IX process.

OFF-CAMPUS

TURNAROUND INC.

3 Locations (Baltimore City, Rosedale, and Towson)

Please call for information or to schedule a visit

(410) 377-8111

<https://www.turnaroundinc.org>

Turnaround provides wrap-around services to individuals of all identities who have experienced sexual violence. They have partnered with a consultant to ensure all care is inclusive to the LGBTQ+ community.

BMORESAFE MERCY MEDICAL CENTER

345 Saint Paul Place, Baltimore, MD 21202

Please call for information or to schedule a visit

(410) 332-9000

<https://www.bmoresafemeracy.org>

Mercy Medical Center is a designated treatment center for sexual assault and domestic violence in Baltimore City. It has 30 specially trained Forensic Nurse Examiners (FNEs) available 24/7 to care for victims of sexual assault, and victims of domestic violence of all LGBTQ+ identities (including men, women, non-binary, and transgender individuals). The Forensic Nurse Examiner Program practices inclusive care and works collaboratively with criminal justice agencies and other Baltimore agencies addressing the needs of victims of violence regardless of how they identify.

OFF-CAMPUS

CHASE BREXTON HEALTH CARE

111 N. Charles Street, Baltimore, MD 21201

(410) 837-2050, ext. 1049

<https://www.chasebrexton.org>

The Center for LGBTQ Health Equity is part of Chase Brexton Health care, a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) that provides a wide range of primary health care, behavioral health, gender-affirming care, prescription assistance, general health and wellness guidance, and case management services to children, teens, adults, and their families. Chase Brexton has six locations throughout Maryland. Visit their website to find the location nearest you.

MARYLAND COALITION AGAINST SEXUAL ASSAULT (MCASA)

For legal services and technical assistance

(301) 565-2277

<https://mcasa.org/survivors/sali>

The mission of MCASA is to help prevent sexual assault, advocate for accessible, compassionate care for individuals who have experienced sexual violence, and work to hold offenders accountable. MCASA's Sexual Assault Legal Institute (SALI) provides comprehensive legal services to individuals who have experienced sexual violence statewide.